In this 6-hour presentation, Dorothy Stucky Halley, LMSW and Steve Halley, LSCSW, co-founders of the Family Peace Initiative, will share two foundational components of their trauma-responsive approach for intervening with partner abuse.

- 1 Cracking the Code: Understanding Different Motives of Those Who Batter and the Connection to Risk and Lethality
- 2 Using the 'River of Cruelty' Model for Partner Abuse Intervention: A Trauma-Responsive Approach

MEET THE FACILITATORS

Dorothy Stucky Halley, LMSW, and Steven M.S. Halley, LSCSW are co-founders and co-directors of the Family Peace Initiative. Steve and Dorothy have been visionary in the development of an evidence-informed motive typology, and a trauma-focused approach for intervening with persons using violence. They are internationally recognized for their expertise and engaging presentations that bring new understanding for effective response to domestic violence.
